(d) Criminalization and other sanctions.....	24
The Story of the Mule.....	24
(e) Copying law from other jurisdictions.....	25
5. Problem-solving methodology as a guide to research.....	26
6. The ROCCIPI problem-solving methodology.....	27
(a) Objective factors.....	28
(1) Rules.....	29
(2) Opportunity.....	29
(3) Capacity.....	29
(4) Communication.....	30
(5) Process.....	30
(b) Subjective factors.....	30
(1) Interest.....	31
(2) Ideology.....	31
(c) Multiple and overlapping explanations for problematic behavior.....	31
(d) Explanations for problematic behavior dictate potential solutions.....	32
In-Class Assignment: The Problem of Traffic Jams.....	32

Chapter 5. Formulating Solutions, Designing Implementation
Provisions, and Assessing Costs and Benefits.....
1.	Chapter contents.....	57
2.	Chapter objectives.....	58
3.	Introduction.....	58
4.	Formulating solutions .....	59
(a)	Finding solutions for the causes of problematic behaviors.....	59
(b)	Where to look for solutions.....	61
	(1) Foreign law and experience.....	61
	(2) Professional or academic literature .....	61
	(3) Your own country's past experience .....	61
5.	Designing implementation provisions.....	62
(a)	Types of measures.....	62
	(1) Direct measures.....	62
	(2) Indirect measures .....	62
	(3) Educational measures.....	63
(b)	Choosing an implementer .....	63
	(1) Courts and tribunals .....	63
	(2) Administrative agencies .....	64
	(3) Public corporations.....	64
	(4) Private-sector organizations .....	65
(c)	Choosing between using an existing implementer or establishing a new one .....	65
(d)	Elaborating alternative solutions.....	65
(e)	Judging between alternative solutions.....	65
(f)	Combining the provisions into a comprehensive policy.....	66
6.	Cost-benefit analysis.....	66
(a)	Purposes of cost-benefit analysis .....	67
(b)	Monetary and non-monetary considerations .....	67

(c)	Basic methods of analyzing costs and benefits .....	67
(1)	Comparing the chosen policy with doing nothing ("status quo" analysis).....	67
(2)	Comparing the chosen policy with alternative policies ....	68
7.	Homework assignment.....	68
8.	Further reading.....	69
Chapter 6.	Data-Gathering and Research .....	71
1.	Chapter contents.....	71
2.	Chapter objectives.....	72
3.	Introduction.....	73
4.	Research and gathering data generally.....	73
(a)	Gathering data from existing sources.....	73
(b)	Gathering data through stakeholder participation.....	74
5.	Data-gathering methodologies .....	74
(a)	Quantitative methodology.....	74
(b)	Qualitative methodology.....	74
6.	Application of data-gathering methodologies to the problem- solving methodology.....	75
(a)	Step 1 — Describing the problem or difficulty .....	75
(b)	Step 2 — Analyzing the problematic behavior .....	75
(c)	Step 3 — Testing hypotheses and proposing solutions .....	75
(d)	Step 4 — Conducting a cost-benefit analysis.....	75
7.	Techniques for gathering data.....	75
(a)	Interviews.....	76
(1)	Structured interviews .....	76
(2)	Unstructured interviews .....	76
(A)	Focused interviews.....	76
(B)	Free interviews.....	77
(b)	Direct or first-hand observation .....	77
(c)	Questionnaires or surveys .....	77
8.	Rules for creating questions to be included in an interview or a questionnaire.....	78
(a)	General rules for the overall list of questions.....	78
(1)	Clarity of concepts and related indicators .....	78
(2)	Standardization.....	78
(3)	Objectivity.....	78
(4)	Relevant unit or method of measurement.....	78
(b)	Rules for formulating individual questions .....	79
(1)	Types of questions.....	79
(A)	Background questions .....	79
(B)	Questions eliciting opinions or comments.....	79
(C)	Questions on knowledge or information.....	79
(D)	Questions on perceptions.....	80
(2)	Form of questions.....	80
(A)	Closed questions.....	80
(B)	Open questions.....	81
(C)	Half-open questions.....	81

(3) Content of questions.....	82
(A) One matter per question .....	82
(B) Avoid ambiguous or vague terms.....	82
(C) Avoid using jargon or technical terms.....	83
(c) Order of questions.....	83
(1) Ask closed questions first, ask sensitive questions later...	83
(2) Use “filter” and “follow-up” questions .....	84
(3) Put questions in a logical order .....	84
9. Homework assignment.....	84
10. Further reading.....	85
Chapter 7. The Research Report.....	87
1. Chapter contents.....	87
2. Chapter objectives.....	88
3. Introduction.....	89
4. Writing a research report.....	89
(a) Function of the research report.....	89
(b) Structure of the research report .....	89
(1) Part 1 — Identification of the characteristics and scope of the social problem .....	90
(2) Part 2 — Explanations of the problematic behavior(s)....	90
(3) Part 3 — Proposal(s) for solution.....	90
(4) Part 4 — Implementation, monitoring, and evaluation....	90
(c) Checklist for the research report .....	90
Figure 7.1. Checklist for a research report. (Adapted from Seidman, Seidman, and Abeyskere, Legislative                 Drafting for Democratic Social Change: A Manual for                 Drafters , Box 4.11, pp. 118–122 (English version).) .....	91
5. Notes on writing style for the research report .....	96
(a) Use clear and simple language .....	96
(b) Write clear sentences .....	96
[Optional] In-Class Assignment: Writing Clear Sentences .....	97
(c) Use “signposts” to guide the reader through the problem- solving methodology.....	98
(d) Mention sources of information used in the research report....	98
6. Rules for drafting policy .....	98
(a) Rule 1 — Avoid vague language .....	99
[Optional] In-Class Assignment: Avoiding Vague Words .....	99
(b) Rule 2 — Avoid ambiguous words .....	100
(c) Rule 3 — Cover the entire “domain” .....	100
(d) Rule 4 — Use rigorously consistent language.....	100
(e) Rule 5 — Avoid redundancy.....	100
(f) Rule 6 — Adopt words from related policies or laws .....	101
(g) Rule 7 — Avoid ambiguous modifiers.....	101
[Optional] In-Class Assignment: Avoiding Ambiguous Modifiers.....	101
(h) Rule 8 — Use ‘and’ and ‘or’ carefully.....	102
(i) Rule 9 — Keep sentences short.....	102
(j) Rule 10 — Use tabulations freely .....	103
